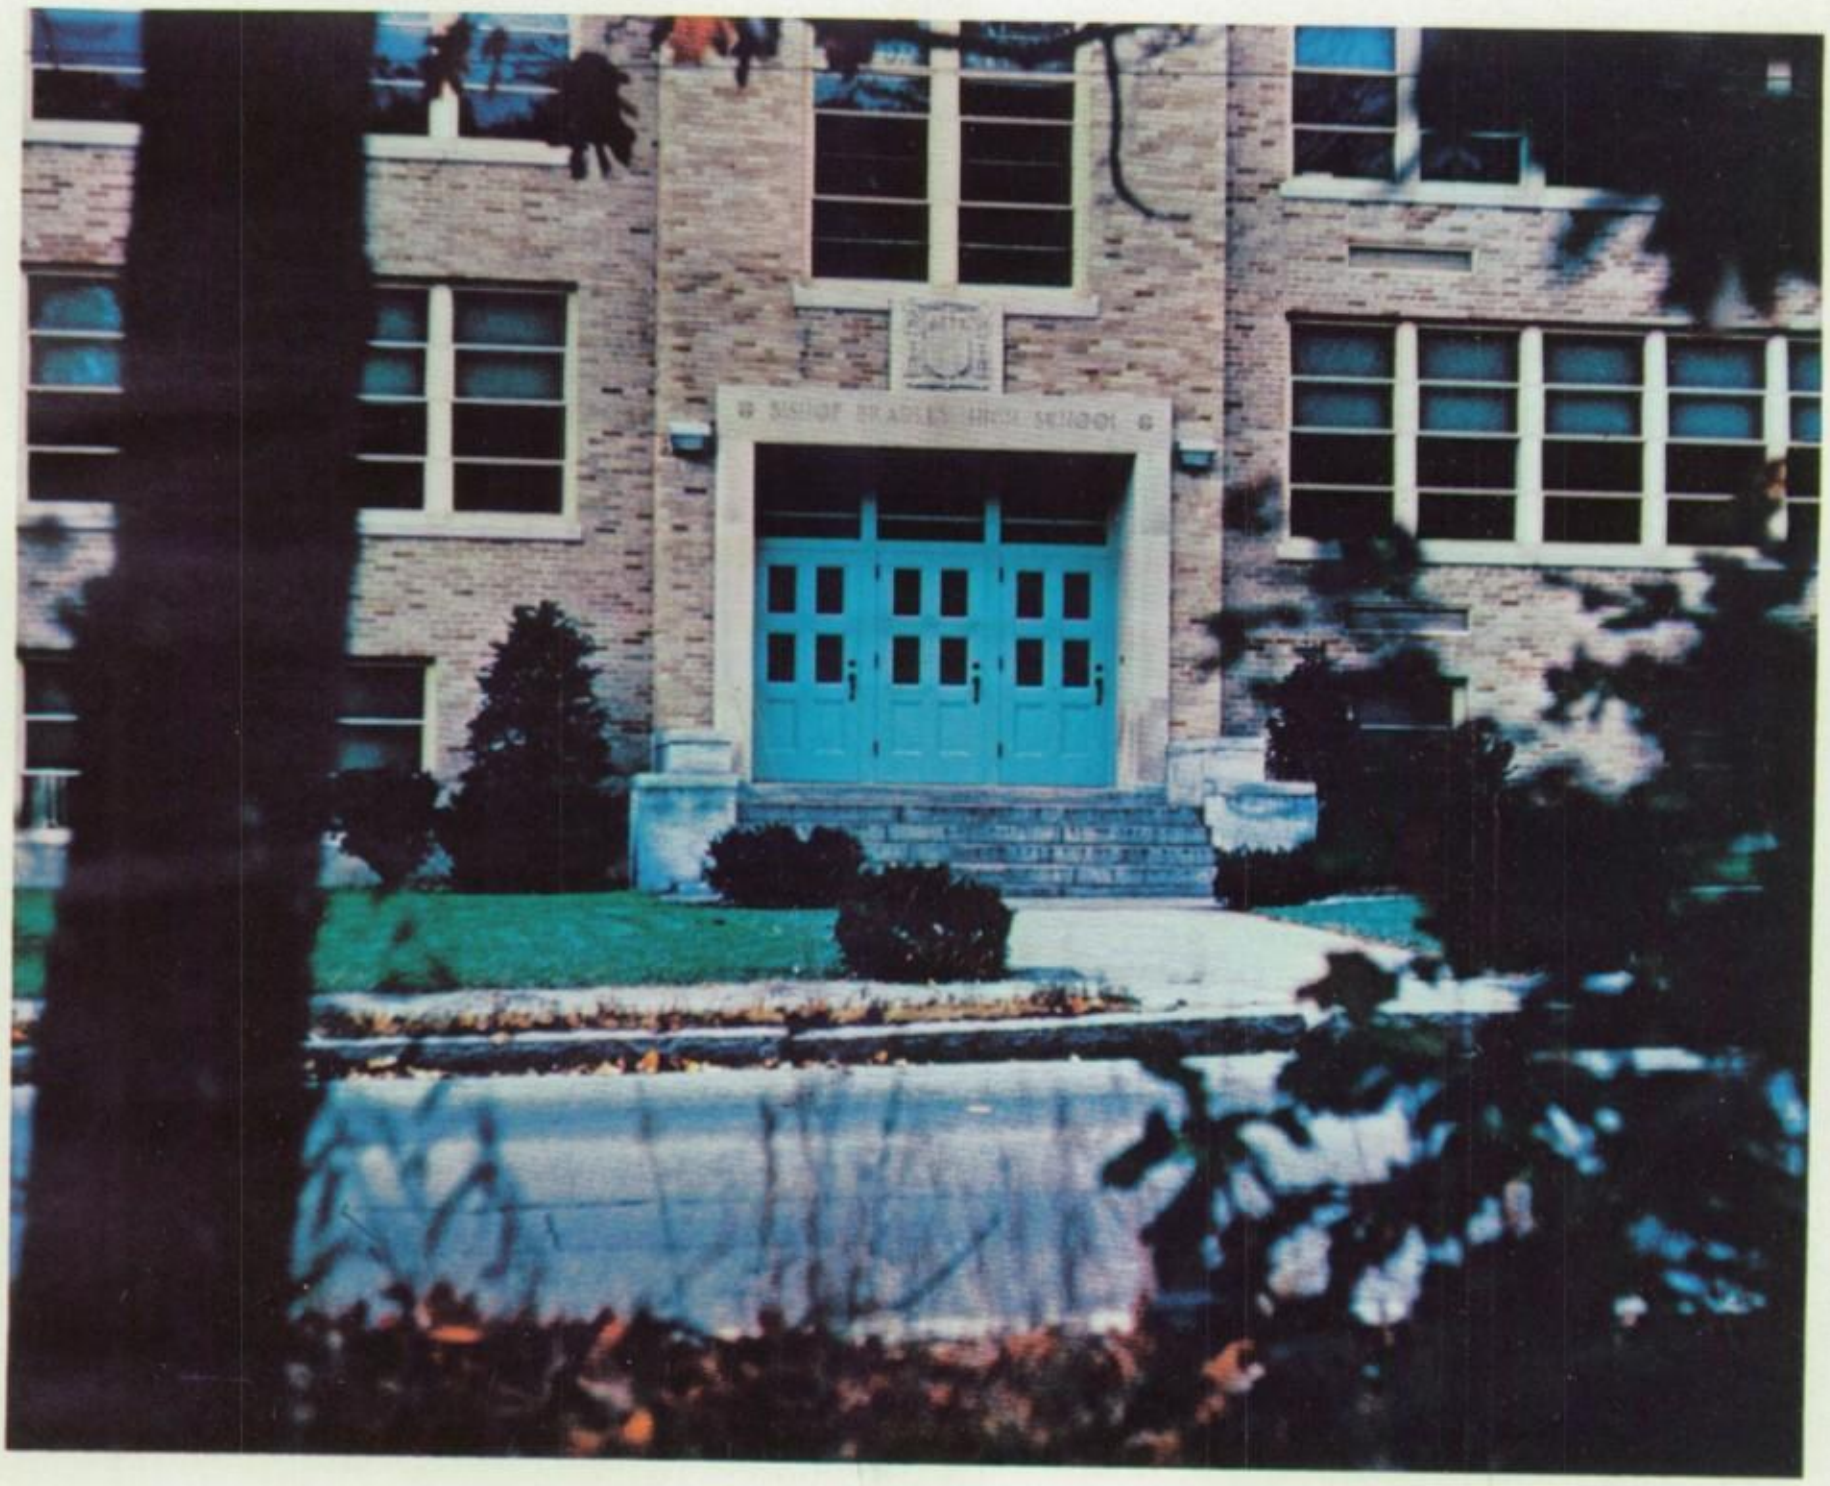
The Senior Class of

Bishop Bradley High School

Manchester, New Hampshire



Presents

Pioneer 1970

Foreword

A sign hangs over the athletic office in the back of the gymnasium which reads: "Pride, Spirit, Tradition." For nineteen years these words have characterized the institution of Bishop Bradley High School. In the pages which follow, we hope to capture the academic pride, the athletic spirit, and the competitive tradition which is so much a part of Bishop Bradley. Whether or not we are successful in our attempt, we hope the past will set a precedent for the future consolidated school.

Dedication

The Senior Class proudly dedicates the 1970 Pioneer to Mister Albert Lesmerises, who for eight years has made a constant effort to upgrade the Science Department at Bishop Bradley High School. As physics teacher, as Drivers' Education instructor, and as moderator of the Science Club, Mr. Lesmerises has worked untiringly to further the education of students at Bradley. We are sure that Mr. Lesmerises will enjoy continued success in his chosen profession.

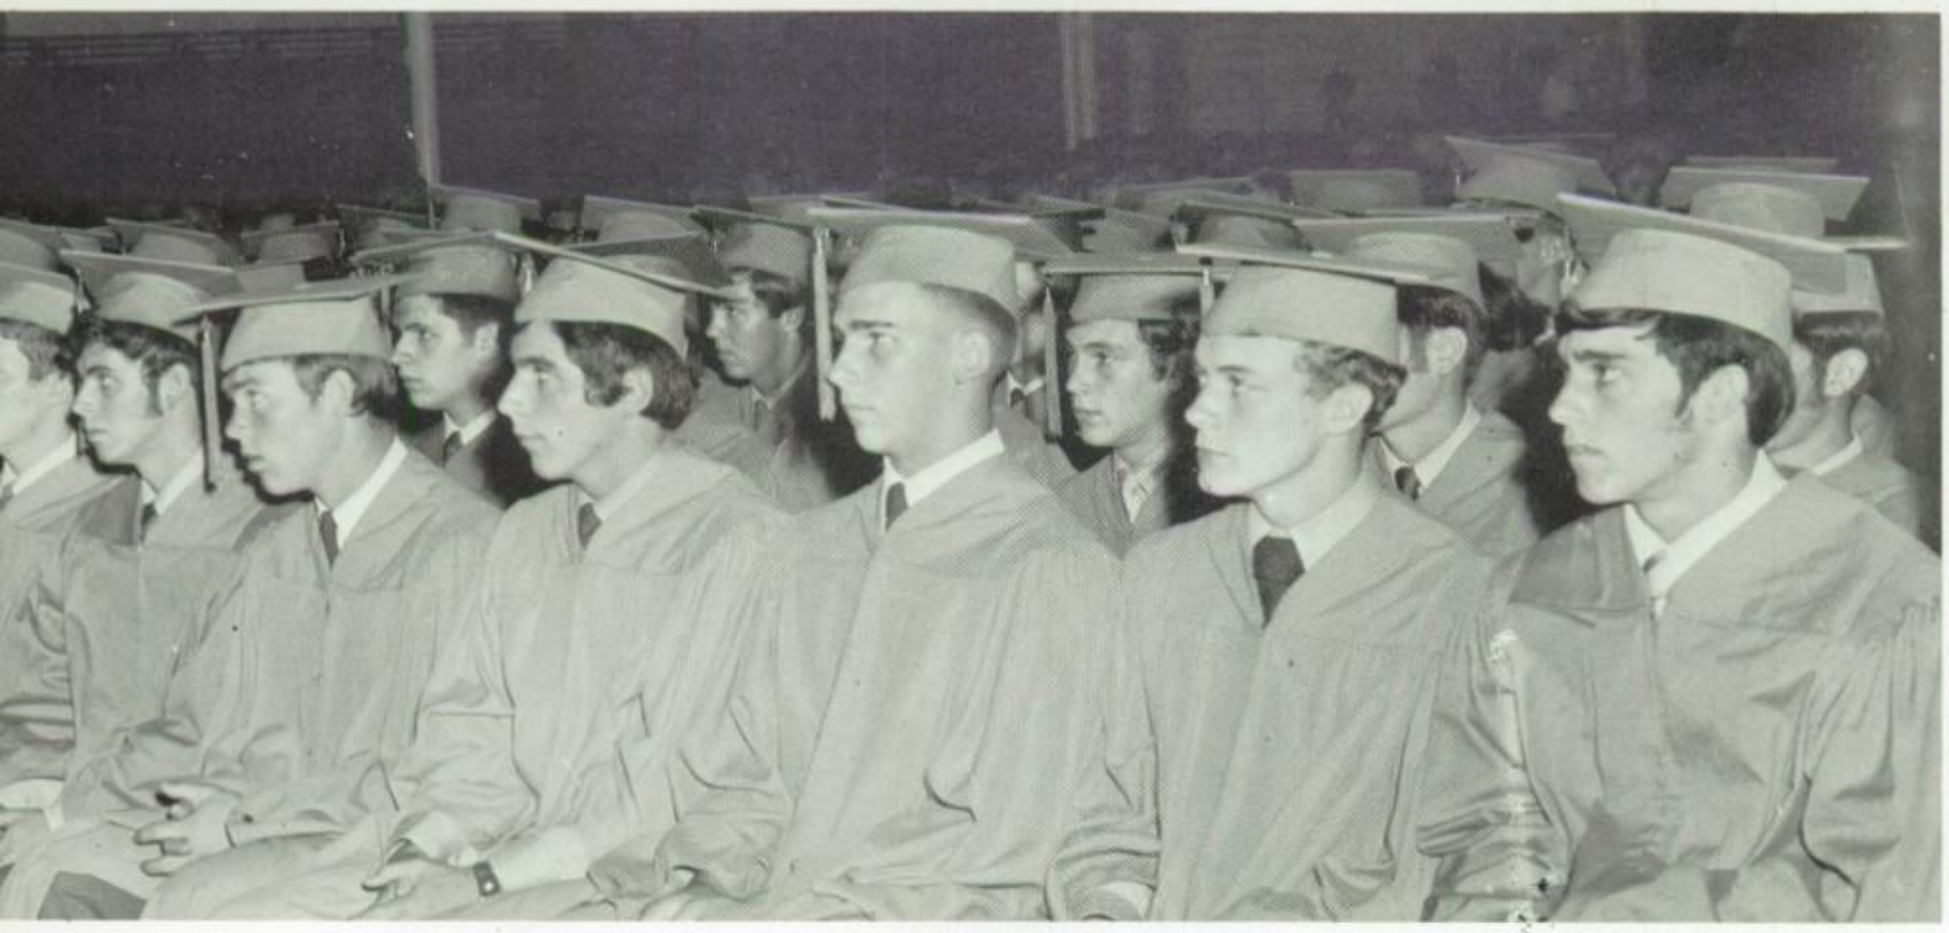
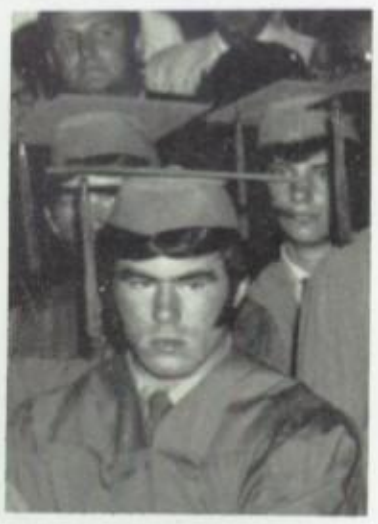
Graduation 1970





Bishop Bradley High School 1952-1970

The Last Year of the Pioneer

We will look back and remember happy days together. The sad times, the anger, the seemingly insurmountable frustration—these things are easily forgotten in a short span of time. We will remember our friends with a longing smile, and remember our enemies in the same frame of mind. We will probably all surrender to the argument that our school days were our best days. Separated, we will remember, and the school will only be a memory.

We will glance at the yearbook and remember our days at Bradley. We will see books and homework, desks and blackboards, papers and tests, teachers and students. We will also see paper airplanes and basketball games, smoke-filled men's rooms and a crowded bench outside the office. We will recall the athletic titles and other honors won by the Bradley Boys. We will recall the Pioneer, the symbol of hard work and pride which lead the students of Bradley in their numerous achievements.

Now the Pioneer is dead. He will still exist, but not in the way we have come to know him. The racoon-capped pioneer who was the symbolic representative of the Bradley Boys has died along with an era— the era of Bishop Bradley High School. Since the incorporation of Bishop Bradley as a diocesan high school for boys under the guidance of the Christian Brothers in 1952, the Pioneer has watched Bradley grow into the best academic secondary school in the state. He has seen the statewide fear of the Bradley athletic teams and the respect rendered to its band, its speaking teams, and its students. He has watched the rise and decline of Bradley, always exhibiting the spirit and pride of its students.

In 1970, at the age of nineteen, the Pioneer died. Now, he is only a nostalgic memory of the past. He lived one generation, the generation which many Americans hope will save this nation from within. Yet we can hope, even though the Pioneer is no longer with us, that the enthusiastic spirit and pride which he represented will remain with us forever. In this way the Pioneer may never die, but it is entirely up to us to keep him alive, not only in memory but in reality.
